

Assisi Suono Sacro | Accademia 2019

Assisi will come back to life with its master classes also next summer 2019. The courses will be scheduled in blocks of a week starting from 3 August. The program includes both interpretation and composition courses. Central to a deep search of sound and music according to the principles of Poor Sound, of which Assisi Suono Sacro has been a spokesperson for years, and the construction of an enlightened musician capable of an innovative capacity for communication. In search of that sound that, freed from the trappings of fashion, is able to enter into deep contact with the human soul and as such to speak the language of the spirit, beyond cultures and religions.

The cost of each course is €. 300.00 per student, inclusive of secretarial costs.
The cost of the seminars is €. 120.00 per student.

Entries must be received without delay by June 15, 2019.

To participate in the courses it is necessary to register by downloading and signing the form on the website www.assisisuonosacro.eu/accademia and sending it by e-mail to assisisuonosacro@gmail.com attaching the payment receipt. All students are required to attach an academic curriculum. To register for the Master Session of the Maestro Seri (Youth Orchestra) it is also necessary to attach a listening test.

The courses will be activated only and exclusively to achieve a minimum number of students per teacher (from 5 to 15 depending on the subjects and their technical needs). To make it easier for the organization to assess whether or not courses have been activated, it is suggested to pay 50% of the registration fee upon pre-registration and the balance within the deadline of 15 June.

If the course is not activated due to insufficient enrollment or due to force majeure by the Association or the teacher, the enrollment fee will be fully reimbursed to the students.

For non-resident students it is possible to find accommodation in a series of affiliated hotels (Hotel San Rufino and affiliates) and near the classrooms at a cost of € (for overnight, breakfast, lunch and dinner). 50.00 per day.
