

ARS PACE PER L'EUROPA

PRESS RELEASE

On Saturday 31 July 2021, Assisi will host the event "Ars Pace per l'Europa" promoted by Ars Pace and Assisi Suono Sacro in collaboration with the European Parliament and with the patronage and support of the Municipality of Assisi and the Region of Umbria.

The Ars Pace event aims to promote the active participation of different sectors of civil society in the "Conference on the Future of Europe" and to encourage dialogue among young Europeans through the universal language of Peace in Culture, Art and Music.

The inauguration is scheduled at 16:00, in the prestigious Sala Pinacoteca in Piazza del Comune, where the painting by Spanish artist Sofia Gandarias "A blow to civilizations" will be exhibited www.gandarias.es.

The "Conference on the future of Europe" as part of the "Peace Deal Forum" will follow at 17:00 at Palazzo Monte Frumentario in Vicolo degli Esposti, with speeches by Enrique Barón Crespo, Monica Baldi, Franco Ivan Nucciarelli, Valentina Parasecolo, Anna Rådeberg.

At 9.30 p.m., in Piazza San Rufino, there will be a concert inaugurating the Assisi Suono Sacro Festival "rEvolution" with the performance of the Assisi Suono Sacro ensemble and Ars Pace, Andrea Ceccomori, Michele Fabrizi and ODM Opera Dance Music.

The event has the support of various international institutions and promotes donations in favour of the Seraphic Institute of Assisi www.serafico.org.

Considering the particular emergency situation, the event will be visible in streaming, live on social media and pre-recorded on Youtube, of the Ars Pace channels.
